no. in v. illus. 23½cm.

Prior to 1919 the announcements of the Pan-Pacific union were included in the Mid-Pacific magazine (begun in 1911). For several years the first sixteen pages of the magazine, devoted to Pan-Pacific news, were printed in advance and distributed as a bulletin of the activities of the Pan-Pacific union. (cf. Bulletin of the Union, new ser., no. 2, Nov. 1919, p. 2) In October 1919 the issue of a Bulletin with special t.-p. was begun as "new series", to be bound with the issue of the Mid-Pacific magazine and also to be distributed separately. The Library of Congress has the complete series as issued in the Mid-Pacific magazine, and of the separate issues the following numbers: new ser., no. 2-4, 6-9, 11-80, 52-54, 56-71.

E come documento—e non con altra intenzione—pubblico questa fila di note."—p. 10.
